Do you want to join a people-centric organization where growth, stability, and human values truly matter?

At Tubex, you will not simply take a job — you will join a company with a legacy, a purpose, and a clear vision for the future. We are entering a dynamic phase of expansion, and to support this strategic growth, we are seeking a dedicated new Controller colleague who will play an important role in our journey.

Join us and help shape the future of a company where progress is shared, people are valued, and every day offers the opportunity to make a meaningful impact.

How will your days be spent with us?

- Managing, preparing monthly and quarterly closing, ensuring accuracy and compliance with internal financial standards.
- Preparing pre- and post-calculations to support decision-making and cost transparency.
- Contributing to the development of financial plans, forecasts, and analytical reports.
- Producing commercial and margin reports, providing clear insights for management.
- Conducting plan vs. actual cost analyses and identifying key variances.
- Overseeing and validating material movement transactions within the system.
- Monitoring production and sales performance on a daily, weekly, and monthly basis.
- Serving as a data analyst within the proAlpha ERP environment, ensuring data accuracy and supporting continuous process improvements.

Controller

(m/f/d)

You are the perfect candidate for this mission if you have:

- 3-5 years of experience in Financial Planning & Analysis (FP&A), with a proven track record of delivering high-quality financial insights.
- Solid understanding of accounting principles, while you are more an analytical profile rather than a traditional accounting person.
- Fluency in English, both written and spoken, with the ability to communicate effectively across all organizational levels.

Shape your future and your career with us. Enjoy every day...

- Competitive compensation based on your experience and market standards.
- Long-term stability and security, supported by Tubex's steady growth and its position as one of the world's leading packaging manufacturers.
- People-focused culture where your ideas and work truly matter.
- Innovative and sustainable environment with career growth opportunities.
- Modern workplace in the scenic Mátra region.
- Supportive team atmosphere built on collaboration and respect.
